

Ok. So, let's recap¹. The fifth grade have all returned from Cambodia and Hiroshima. The third grade are all still in Canada. Most classes have nearly finished their guidance. Last week we had an awesome² Watoto concert. And Marty McFly unfortunately³ didn't materialize⁴ on Wednesday. At least, if he did, it didn't make the news⁵. And what about this week? It's looking to be⁶ cold. They have forecast⁷ the first snow in Sapporo for tomorrow (Sunday – I'm writing this on Saturday) and it's going to head into winter from there. Try to keep warm.

Something You Didn't Know (James Bond⁸)

- 1. 219 people have played James Bond: on radio, on stage, in movies, stuntmen⁹, audiobooks.
- 2. Ian Fleming, the man who wrote the books, chose James Bond because he thought it was the most mundane¹⁰ name he could find. It came out of a book on ornithology¹¹ he had in his house.
- 3. The James Bond movie franchise¹² has made about $9 billion so far.
- The new movie is called SPECTRE, which stands for: Special Executive for Counterintelligence Terrorism Revenge and Extortion¹³
- 5. Bond's family crest¹⁴ motto is: The World Is Not Enough¹⁵.
- 6. Sean Connery played Bond in 7 movies. When he quit the producers didn't know how to explain Bond's new appearance. They decided not to and now 6 different people have played Bond.

News New James Bond Movie

Spectre, the new James Bond movie, has been released¹⁶ to the critics¹⁷. We won't be able to watch it until the end of November but all of the critics have said that it may very well be the best Bond movie ever! I am very excited. This is the 23rd James Bond movie and so far there have been six different actors who played the character.

Christoph Waltz will play the villain²¹ this time. He came to fame²² in Quentin Tarantino's movie, Inglourious Basterds. He is a phenomenal²³ actor and also speaks German, French, English and Italian. He is going to be an incredible²⁴ baddie²⁵! I don't know if you've guessed yet, but I'm really looking forward to the movie.

This movie stars Daniel Craig as James Bond. This is the fourth time he has appeared in the role¹⁸. When he was first chosen as Bond many people were angry. "How can Jamese Bond be blond¹⁹?" the asked. However, I think Daniel Craig has proved himself²⁰ to be the best James Bond ever. I am looking forward to seeing the latest movie.
